Addressing injustice in modern Australia

Sunday, 3rd July 2011 Comments from the “Wall of Thought”

- What programs do we have in schools to help children avoid or be prepared for homelessness?
- Join a progressive political party that deals with social justice issues.
- Volunteer in a diocese soup kitchen or night van for the homeless.
- Why is all the excellent material available e.g., for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday, Social Justice Sunday etc not made compulsory for use in parishes?
- As one young man has just said so wisely – “From Little Things Big Things Grow”
- Isn't it the western people who introduce alcohol to the first people of this land!
- Socialist Alliance has a network that visits detention centres.
- BE PRESENT
- TELL THE TRUTH BE COUNTER-CULTURAL
- This has been a great opportunity to learn more about “What can I do”
- This was the first time I heard someone speak out at a public gathering for the care and dignity of a woman faced with a decision that will impact on her very being. I have heard the pain of many women who face torture from external and internal judgement. Thank you for being their voice.
- Grateful thanks for a wonderful and thought provoking day. Hopefully such an event will become an established annual fixture.
